

WHITE SOX PIN HOPES TO TWIRLING TRIO

Manager Reardon of the Chicago White Sox is expecting much from this twirling trio in the American league pennant race this year. Reardon is the first major league pitcher to go the route this year, and he won a few days ago against the Fort Worth Panthers without turning a hair, shutting out his opponents, 11 to 0.

DEATH OR CAPTURE OF VILLA EXPECTED

Perkins in trapping Villa was generally believed among army officers. State Department officials were hopeful tonight that there would be little further delay in concluding negotiations of the protocol providing for general cooperation of Carranza and American forces in hunting Villa.

Administration officials also were confident that agitation in congress for additional troops to guard the border would not be renewed in the light of this week's events.

Backache, headache, dragging pains. Nothing relieved me until I took Peruna.

Thousands of the best women in the world are bearing the burden of backache, headache, dragging pains, a miserable, half-dead, half-alive condition, produced by chronic internal derangements. Mrs. Joseph Lacelle, 124 Glenora Ave., Ottawa East, Ontario, Canada, is one of the fair women of America who has had her experience with this sort of a burden. Her experience is similar to the multitude of other women whose letters are recorded in the "Mills of Life." A copy of this free booklet ought to be in the hands of every housewife in the United States. Read what Mrs. Lacelle says:

"I suffered with backache, headache and dragging pains for over nine months, and nothing relieved me until I took Peruna. The medicine is by far better than any other medicine for these troubles. A few bottles relieved me of my miserable half-dead, half-live condition. I am now in good health, have neither ache nor pain, nor have I had any for the past year. If every suffering woman would take Peruna, they would soon know its value and never be without it."

ATTACK MADE UPON SENATE'S ARMY BILL

of full admirals for the chief of operations and fixing his powers by law on an equality with those of chiefs of bureaus.

The General Board proposed that the fleet built and authorized should be as follows: By 1919—battleships 48; armored cruisers 24; protected cruisers 48; scout cruisers 48; destroyers 48; submarines 6. In addition the following auxiliaries were recommended for each squadron of eight battleships: Five colliers, one ammunition ship, one supply ship, one repair ship, one tank ship, two transports and one hospital ship.

The secretary also presented a table of the world's naval tonnage which showed that Germany and the United States passed French in naval powers about the same time, in 1911. According to these figures, the United States navy never has been in second place; France dropping from second to fourth at that time, while Germany became second and the United States third.

The question of giving an admiral rank to the chief of operation was brought to the secretary's notice by Representative Robinson, who pointed out that the holder of that office conferred with Congressional committees and should have an adequate rank over other admirals of the navy.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.
WASHINGTON, March 31.—The annual fight over rivers and harbors improvement was opened in the House today with Chairman Steiwerman urging passage of the $40,000,000 bill passed by the rivers and harbors committee and Representative Frear and other Republicans attacking it as an extravagant "pork barrel" measure. General debate will continue tomorrow at least, and after that it will probably be a week before action is taken.

NEUTRALITY IS ONLY BROKEN

Captain Bernier explained today that it was not only through fear of Schiller's supposed mines and bombs that kept him and his crew under subjection. But he feared the man surely would have to sleep in a day or two when he could have placed him in irons without bloodshed. Captain Bernier and many of his crew testified against Schiller at the hearing today, the testimony differing but little from the story the Captain told last night.

HAILED BEFORE COURT.
NEW YORK, March 31.—Captain Otto Walpert, in charge of the Atlas Service of the Hamburg American steamship line, was taken before Federal Judge Hand, today on a presentment by the federal grand jury charging him with refusal to answer questions. The grand jury is investigating alleged plots to cause strikes on steam ship piers and ammunition plants for which Congressman Frank Buchanan and others have already been indicted.

The court was told that Walpert had refused to give information concerning his relations with Franz Von Rintelen, a German agent and others involved in the alleged plots. Walpert explained that he believed that if he were to return answer to the grand jury it might incriminate him. The case was put over until Monday.

BIG MEET ATTRACTS INTENSE INTEREST IN LOCAL SPORTDOM

Close Observers Predict Hard Struggles in All Contests; Music by C. & A. and Copper Queen Bands.

A record crowd of followers of athletic sports is expected at Sunday afternoon's big track and field contest between C. & A. and Copper Queen teams. The keenest interest is in evidence in sporting circles and among the general public. Doubtless the fact that the teams appear to be evenly matched accounts for the remarkable interest, although it is generally recognized that the efficient coaching and thorough training of the members of both teams is bound to result in high grade performances.

Over sixty-four athletes will enter the different events, these, of course, being evenly divided between the C. & A. and Copper Queen teams. Several persons who are in a position to know the capabilities of both teams, declared their belief that several local records would be smashed.

C. & A. and Copper Queen bands will render music throughout the afternoon. This feature will be an additional incentive for a large attendance, as Warren District music lovers are familiar with the splendid renditions of both organizations. The meet is scheduled to commence at 1:30.

BENNY LEONARD IS WINNER FROM WELSH

English Holder of Lightweight Title is Outpointed Nine Rounds in Ten.

(By Review Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, March 31.—Benny Leonard of this city outpointed Freddie Welsh of England, the lightweight champion, in a 10-round bout tonight in Madison Square Garden.

Leonard had the better of nine out of ten rounds, the fifth being even. Welsh weighed 135 at the ring side and his opponent 132. Leonard forced the fighting from the first clang of the bell. On two occasions he rocked the title holder with left and right smashes to the head and jaw. He used both hands.

In the fifth the champion appeared to better advantage, landing with both hands on Leonard's head and body. One of the blows cut the challenger's left eye brow. One of Leonard's blows which reached Welsh's nose was equally effective, however. The bout was fast and clean all the way.

TIGERS' HITFEET.

BEAUMONT, Tex., March 31.—The Detroit Americans accepted every offering of the local pitcher today and hit safely fifteen times, for five runs, while the Beaumont, Texas, League players were making a single run.

THIRTY THOUSAND MEN FOR MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS

With camps at seven different points and an expected enrollment of 30,000 men, the "Plattsburg idea" will boom large in national affairs this year. The "Plattsburg idea" is a plain plan for military training of Americans. It does not advocate militarism. It is simply a plan to give young men four or five weeks of healthy, outdoor life and military training in the field under regular army officers and with regular army troops.

The original Plattsburg camps will continue on Lake Champlain, where the first one will open June 5 and continue until July 2. Four other camps will follow there in succession, lasting until October 5. The first camp, this year, will be at Fort Ord, Cal., from April 3 to April 30. The camp at Monterey, Cal., will begin early in July. Other camps will be held at Fort Sheridan, Ill.; at San Antonio, Texas; at Lake City, Utah, and American Lake, Washington. Others will probably be announced a little later, especially for the Middle West.

Headquarters, 31 Nassau St., N. Y.

To systematize the work, the Military Training Camps Association has been organized with headquarters at 31 Nassau street, New York City. D. K. Jay is in executive charge of the machinery for enrollment in the camps all over the country. There is no conflict among them. Each is drawing men from its tributary territory and all are working in close co-operation. Mr. Jay says "the association will steer clear of political activities and devote itself exclusively to the single purpose of encouraging and providing military training for young men."

General Leonard Wood, head of the Department of the East, in a public statement, says: "The whole effect of the camps has been excellent, both at Gettysburg in 1913, have been merged into the general Plattsburg movement. The association, from its headquarters at 31 Nassau street, New York City, has announced that it will send any applicant full details concerning enrollment and instruction."

Since, under present conditions, the men at the camps are obliged to pay their own way, no express obligation or enlistment under the government is involved. Those who have followed the trend of the training, however, are impressed with the possibility of the Plattsburg idea being the foundation for a national army, through effective help and recognition by the national government. Throughout the whole, the prevailing spirit of efficiency, discipline, patriotism, and national service.

The purpose of the training camps association is to develop the common aims not only of the several camps but to co-ordinate the Plattsburg work with results the students' camps have accomplished. The student volunteer camps, which started at Gettysburg in 1913, have been merged into the general Plattsburg movement. The association, from its headquarters at 31 Nassau street, New York City, has announced that it will send any applicant full details concerning enrollment and instruction."
